AGAIN AT HARLEM.

The local racing scene shifted yesterday from Hawthorne to Harlem and, as is almost always the case before horses get accustomed to a change of tracks, there were some form variations. Egbert's and Brigade's races yesterday were good examples of this.

It was a hot, sultry afternoon but the card offered by Secretary Nathanson was a very attractive one and a crowd of over 3,000 sweltered in the grandstand and betting ring.

Carnero's good race, Brigade's bad one and Egbert's form somersault were the main features.

Carnero, who is naturally a horse of high class, but has been a cripple for over a year, was in the fifth event at a mile and one-sixteenth, along with a pretty good lot, which included John Baker, who was made favorite over the field at 8 to 5 and less. That Carnero is once more at himself he clearly demonstrated. He trailed in behind his horses until the stretch was reached and then went to the front on call. Carnero ran the last mile in 1:39½. John Baker ran a fair sort of a race, but had to be contented with third place, Monk Wayman beating him three-quarters of a length.

The Brigade race had a bad look and will be likely to get someone into trouble. The horse looked like a sure winner in the fourth, a mile condition race, and 9 to 20 was the best price ever offered against him, and it seemed then that the pencilers were giving away their money. Brigade got away fourth but had no speed whatever, and down the back stretch dropped ten lengths back of the last horse. Flick, who rode Brigade, seemed to be hunching and urging the horse for all he was worth but it was of no use. He plodded in behind the bunch until the head of the stretch where it seemed for an instant that he was going to display some speed but he never did. After the finish, Espionage having won easily from Pay the Fiddler, an angry mob gathered around the judge's stand and for an instant a stampede looked possible.

The judges called Flick up and also Owner E. R. Bradley, but neither could explain the horse's bad showing. In fact, Flick was crying so bitterly that he could not talk at all. Brigade did not carry either whip or spur and the judges were at sea as to what action to take. They finally declared the race no contest, but will further investigate the matter.

Egbert, with 116 pounds up, finished fourth to Bon Jour, Uarda and Einstein in his last out, which was at Hawthorne last Friday. The race was at a mile and a sixteenth and was run in 1:48. Yesterday Egbert was in at a mile and an eighth and with ten pounds less weight he won in a romp in 1:55½. Einstein in the same race finished a bad fifth. The Harlem track is evidently Egbert's choice. Still he has the reputation of being a bad horse and a rank in and out. This considered, the horse was backed from 2½ to 1 down to 2 to 1.

Graziella showed her heels to a fast lot of sprinters in the third race. The talent always overlooks this filly and she went to the post at 5 to 1. Mathews rode her, and waiting in a good position until the stretch was reached he then made his move and Graziella responding like a good race mare came on and won by two lengths from Canva.

The first race furnished an accident and also a big surprise. The accident happened to Erla d'Or who got tangled up on the far turn and went down with jockey A. Booker. It was a bad looking fall, and Booker was lucky in escaping alive. The surprise was the fact that Willie Newcom rode the winner, Zaza. It has been about a year since this jockey finished in front.

The last race went to Maggie Davis. This filly is very speedy and by getting a long lead early she managed to last long enough to win.

Following are recent new arrivals at the Harlem track: Redfield & Wallenstein with Greatlands and Pell Mell II; W. M. Rogers with Richard J., Our Gertie, Kensington and others; W. H. May with seven head, and J. C. Cahn from St. Louis with his entire string.

"Virginia" Bradley has at last put what possibly may be the last nail in Boney Boy's coffin. The honest little "iron horse" pulled up very lame in his last race, and the veterinary says he has broken down. It was about this time last season that Traverser dropped dead. This may teach Bradley a lesson in humanity.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Messrs. Whitney & Paget are having their yearlings broken at Mr. H. P. Headley's La Belle farm, with Thomas Hogan, who has had charge of the Whitney Paget brood mares and foals, in chief command, and Ted Whitham (in charge of the stallions) as boss rider. They are thirty-one in number, and their breeding is given below. The Goldfinch—Firenze filly is especially a fine individual. It will be recalled that Goldfinch was imported to California by Mr. Haggin, where he made a season or two and then was returned to England.

Chestnut filly, by Goldfinch—Firenze.

Black filly, by Charade—Edith Gray.

Bay filly, by Lamplighter—Medje.

The following are by Meddler:

Bay colt, Annot Lyle.

Bay filly, Clio.

Bay filly, Flageoletta.

Bay filly, Frolic Grace.

Bay filly, Leonica.

Bay filly, Little Lady II.

Bay filly, Money Box.

Chestnut colt, Nekomis.

Chestnut filly, Octavia.

Chestnut filly, Onoma.

Brown colt, Silvie.

Chestnut filly, Spring Gun.

Bay filly, Sunnyside.

Bay filly, Yodel.

Bay filly, Zegri.

Brown filly, Corizon.

Chestnut filly, Iolanthe.

Bay colt, Sheboygan.

The following are by The Bard:

Bay colt, Water Lily.

Bay colt, War Dress.

Bay colt, Equipoise.

Bay colt, Love Fire.

Bay colt, Heel and Toe.

Bay colt, Maumee.

Bay filly, Rosalind.

Chestnut filly, Athalaric.

Bay colt, Northminster.

Bay colt, Roulette.—Thoroughbred Record.

Mr. James R. Keene is opposed to the use of the starting machine, and said of in a recent interview:

"The use or discontinuance of the starting gate is the most absorbing question now confronting the Jockey Club, and one that from its importance can only be decided after the fullest consideration. Personally I am opposed to its use and have been consistently so for a long period, but I realize that other gentlemen as well able to form a correct opinion as I favor it. I am aware that the English Jockey Club has, after a thorough discussion, decided to give it a trial, and mainly, I think, because its use in Australia has been successful.

"Whether the gate used there is superior to that used here, or whether 'thsmen at the gate' there manages to secure satisfactory results which have not been attained here, is a matter about which I have no precise information. I only know that American experience with it has been exasperating and disappointing, and that among the trainers and practical horsemen few will be found to dispute the opinion that it has signally failed to satisfy expectations and should, therefore, be abandoned and a return made to the old method of starting. Starter Fitzgerald thinks, however, that without a starting gate he might be less successful than with one, and might fail altogether. This raises a difficulty when we come to consider whether it would be advisable to discontinue it. We are now in the middle of the racing season and experiment, ordinarily hazardous, becomes more formidable when so many interests must be protected. Therefore, any radical change now is hardly likely, but a partial remedy might be found in the continuance of the gate without the recall. We certainly should get as good results as in Australia. Should it fail to give satisfaction, then the whole question of starting must be taken up seriously for solution."

A meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club was held at the Brighton Beach track Saturday afternoon. The cancelled contract between William H. Clark and Jockey Daniel Maher was submitted. Thomas Hitchcock Jr. was appointed steward to represent the Jockey Club for the first ten days of the Saratoga meeting. The following licenses were granted:

Jockeys—Elmer James, Louis Smith, Pete Clay, Spencer, Cogswell, William Crosthwaite, James Dupes, H. Hartley Eads, J. Hill, Quester Jackson, R. J. Mason, Thomas Smith and S. Petersen.

Trainers—Henry Behrmann, James Dumas, Charles Darsey, William H. Greary, C. F. Grady, William Hayward Sr., William Hayward Jr., R. P. Hayes, F. L. McFadden, R. P. McDonald, A. G. Neussell, E. T. Pine, J. S. Redfield, J. S. Ward and W. T. Woodard Jr.

Tom Griffin made a mistake at Brighton Beach Saturday that greatly amused his enemies, of which he has a plenty. It was in connection with the Choice Stakes, for which M. J. Dwyer's Trumpet and Shoreham ran first and second and his own colt Knightbanneret third. The incident is thus described in a New York newspaper:

"The Beach crowd is essentially democratic, and cheers rent the air when Trumpet and his stable mate led home the field. These cheers turned to hisses when H. T. Griffin, better known as 'the man with the halter,' bid up the winner to nearly double his entered selling price. Mr. Dwyer, who had been helped from his seat in the stand to the track, retained his horse for $1,905. Mr. Griffin was of the opinion that the Dwyer entry counted as one horse, and that as his own colt, Knightbanneret, ran third he would receive half of any amount over $1,000 bid for Shoreham. But he reckoned without his host, as the eastern rules differ from those in force in the west, whence the 'halter man' comes. The Choice Stakes—deducting entry fees and half the extra bid, which goes to the association—netted Mr. Dwyer $1,017."

John Miller, who is shipping horses between Lexington, Ky., and New York and other eastern points, arrived at Lexington Friday with a load, including F. F. V. and Ways and Means. August Belmont sent the stallion St. Bartholomew to his Nursery Stud and J. B. Haggin sent the three-year-old full sister to Sir Walter to be bred to Salvator. Ways and Means has been fired and turned out, and the operation will be applied to F. F. V.

HAWTHORNE RULINGS.

The official rulings of the judges at Hawthorne in certain recent cases of notoriety are as follows:

"On July 12 we suspended Jockey T. Rutter for his suspicious actions and being left at the post on the horse Uhler in the fourth race that day.

"At the post his every action was suspicious. He kept pulling his horse up and around continuously, and at no time did he allow him to remain still. When the starter gave the word to a perfect start his horse was perfectly straight and he deliberately snatched him up and around.

"Rutter's explanation to us after the race was that the horse had on a new bridle and he could not at any time control him. The horse was equipped in this race just the same as in all his previous races at this track, and in his subsequent races, with different jockeys in the saddle, wearing the same bridle and otherwise equipped the same each start as the race in question, showed beyond any question of doubt to bewery quiet and gentle at the post and willing to break perfectly every opportunity, making Rutter's explanation simply ridiculous.

"His riding on various occasions has not been above suspicion and he seems to have a habit of getting left at the post on favorites, as evidenced by his riding elsewhere on occasions where we have officiated this season, being left twice in one day.

"We are satisfied now as we were the day of the race, that he had no intention whatever of accepting a start and that he deliberately got left at the post.

"His suspension from all privileges will continue indefinitely and we further recommend to the license committee of the American Turf Congress that his license as jockey be revoked forthwith.

"For inconsistent racing during this meeting we recommend that the entry of the horses Einer, Uarda, Hardly and Robert Bonner be refused hereafter at Hawthorne.

JAMES H. REES,
HARRY KUHLL
Judges.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Danny Maher, the jockey who was set down by W. H. Clark after his failure to get away with Banastar in the Suburban, will ride the remainder of the season for J. R. Keene, the well-known horseman, and for C. Fleischmann Sons when Keene has no need for his services. Maher has been released by Mr. Clark and engaged by Mr. Keene for the season at a salary of $10,000 a year and a bonus of $2,000. The contract will probably be signed early this week.

It is to be observed that aside from Tod Sloan's successful riding in England the other American jockeys, Lester Reiff, "Skeets" Martin and little Johnny Reiff have also scored in a way that won applause. The deduction is that the best riders in this country are, to say the least, fully the equals of the best riders in the birth place and home of modern racing.

The American entries for the English Derby of 1901, are: W. O. B. Macdonough, 1; Sydney Paget, 9; Marcus Daly, 6; J. G. Follansbee, 1; John Daly, 1; James R. Keene, 2; Foxhall P. Keene, 2; C. T. Patterson, 1. For the Oaks the entries are: James R. Keene, 2; Foxhall P. Keene, 2; Sydney Paget, 4; Marcus Daly, 5.

The Duke of Westminster has presented the winnings of his colt Flying Fox, in the Eclipse Stake, ran at Sandown Park, amounting to $42,500, to the Royal Alexander Hospital at Rhyl, Wales, of which he is president and the Princess of Wales patroness.

NOTES OF THE TURF

Alice Turner, who has won a lot of races for Keith & Patton at the Fair Grounds the present season, is expected by her owners to develop into another Ethel Gray. Alice Turner is a bay filly by Regalis—Lady Glyde. She was bred at the Patton stud near Sturgeon, Mo. The late J. D. Patton, Alice Turner's breeder, died in California last year. Mr. Patton bred and campaigned Ethel Gray, who will be remembered as one of the best race mares in the history of the American turf. Alice Turner resembles Ethel Gray in many respects, being the same type of a filly that the old mare was in her two-year-old form. The late J. D. Patton's widow is a member of the firm of Keith & Patton, owners of Alice Turner, Maud Wallace and other horses now being campaigned at the Fair Grounds.—St. Louis Republic.

One of the stables at Horse Haven, Saratoga, took fire Friday morning and L. V. Bell's two-year-old Scout, by Uncas—Castalia, was burned to death.

RACING AT LEXINGTON.

The Lexington horse show, fair and carnival, to be held during the dates of August 8 to 12, will beyond any doubt be one of the greatest entertainments ever produced south of the Ohio river, and in connection with their most liberal premium list for live stock, they offer several purses of $150 to $200 each for running horses.
Horsemen should take advantage of this opportunity to capture some "easy money" and after the meeting freshen up their horses upon the abundant bluegrass at that place before the beginning of the fall meetings around Cincinnati.
For catalogues, conditions, etc., address E. W.
Shanklin, Secretary, Lexington, Ky.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler) harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment.
The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

JUNE FORM BOOKS ARE READY

The paper and leather covered volumes of Monthly Racing Form, containing all the charts from June 1 to June 29 inclusive, are ready for delivery. In paper, $1; in leather, $1.50. The book is a large one and the supply limited.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted.
The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

Time, 12½, 23½, 35½, 48½, 1:01½.

Winner—Br. f, by Bramble—Mary Conroy.

Post 16 minutes. Start good for all but Protio, who acted green and would not break. Won easily; second handily. Third driving. Erel d'Or's fall put a false result to the race. After the filly got up she ran into the bunch making it dangerous for the other boys to try to do much. It would be hard to charge the accident against anyone. Erel d'Or seemed very rank and the Booker started through with her on the inside of Zaza. The opening was too small for the boy to squeeze through and he went down. Some blamed Beauchamp and others Gray for the accident but neither was to blame. Mitten ran a good race. Zaza and Highland Lad were both interfered with repeatedly by Erel d'Or. So was Pantland, who was obliged to pull up when the accident occurred. Booker was stunned but not badly hurt.

Scratched—13441 Okkma, 95; 13521 Lew Kraft, 108; 12490 Nina B L., 95; 13521 Aloha II, 95; 13497 Lomond, 103; 13322 Mont Eagle, 95; 13379 Zeriba, 100; 13404 Caviar, 103; 13404 Dick Farber, 108; 13404 Strathbrooke, 103.

Zaza, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Mitten, place, 31 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Huronia, show, 4 to 5. Highland Lad, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Erel d'Or, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. h, by Egmont—Jennie Doty.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second whipped; third and fourth driving to the limit. Egbart ran a much better race today than he did when last out. He was at his best and played with his field. Flick could have gone to the front with him at any stage. Malaise showed fine speed and ran a creditable race. She was tiring badly at the end. Piccola finished stoutly. Lillian Reed should have been third. She was handicapped by the ride she got. Einstein took the long route and did not run to his notch.

Scratched—13523 Teutons, 101.

Corrected weights—Egbart, 106.

Egbart, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Malaise, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Piccola, show, evens. Finem Respire, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f, by Aintree—Quick.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next four were driving to the limit. Graziella is consistent and is in grand form at present. She came from behind with a beautiful burst of speed in the stretch. Matthews rode the filly with skill. He placed her well throughout and luckily avoided all interferences. Canova weakened badly in the last fifty yards and barely lasted long enough to get second place. Newgatherer was running great guns at the finish and would have got second place in a few more strides. The latter was pocketed several times and generally poorly ridden. ABE Furst got away in a pocket and never really got clear until the last furlong and then he made a strong bid. Mark Opera Girl in slower company. Her race was better than the figures show here. Tenby appeared to be winning at the head of the stretch but could not stand the pressure at the end. Graziella pulled up quite lame.

Scratched—13212 Boanerges, 103; 9044 Queen Safie, 98; 13408 Montgomery, 100; 13381 Carl C., 97.

Overweights—Rosa L., 4 pounds.

Graziella, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Canova, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Newgatherer, show, 8 to 5. ABE Furst, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Tenby, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Sun Maid.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second whipped out. Espionage, after being badly bumped and interfered with on the far turn, came through the stretch like a whirlwind. She was running away from her field at the end. Pay the Fiddler is an honest performer. Brigade's performance was a joke. He did not have speed enough to keep warm. Flick seemed to be trying the best he knew how, but did not have whip or spur to work with. In all of his races at Harlem heretofore Brigade, according to the judge's official book, has been ridden with a whip. Everett, who rode the horse at Hawthorne, says he carried both whip and spur. Owing to Brigade's bad showing the judges declared the race no contest. Brigade's showing will be further investigated, however.

Scratched—13523 Boney Boy, 99.

Overweights—Neada, 5 pounds; Cordial, 2.

Espionage, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Pay the Fiddler, place, 6 to 5; show, out. Brigade, show, out.

Winner—B. h, by Candelmas—Sister Geleva.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second and third were doing their best. Carnero is in excellent form and is better than the class of horses he met today. Sheppard trained his field until the stretch was reached and then came up on the outside with a rash. Monk Wayman ran a good race. He seemed to have a winning chance on the far turn. John Baker and Bon Jour raced each other to exhaustion in front in the first part of the race. Hugh Penny stopped badly in the stretch. Carnero ran the last mile in 1:39½.

Carnero, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Monk Wayman, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 4. John Baker, show, out.

Winner—B. f, by Sayre—Lizzie C.

Off at the first break to a good start. The first three were under keen pressure. Maggie Davis had clear sailing and was lucky throughout. She is a very fast filly and Master Waldo got to the front early and made every post a winning one. Free Hand gained steadily on Maggie Davis all through the stretch, but could not quite get up. She ran a good, game race. Sim W. finished stoutly. Murat did not have his usual flash of early speed. Pauline J. made a strong bid at the eighth post, but died away again at the finish. Fair Deceiver retired early. The first part of the race was run very fast. It was a good race from a time standpoint.

Scratched—(13343) Al Lone, 107; (11117) Arlington, 103; 13321 April's Lady, 96; 13458 Rosavanah, 105; 13380 Vie L'mont, 94; 13065 Blue Lick, 97; (12958) D'shaway, 105; 13407 Albartvale, 110; 13210 Hanan, 94; 13271 Amelia Fonso, 102; 13403 Maceo, 118; 13347 Lord Zeni, 108.

Maggie Davis, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Free Hand, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Sim W., show, 6 to 5. Pauline J., place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. c, by Longstreet—Highland Lass.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lissome swerved badly in the stretch and tired in the going. Chickamauga was best. He is a fair colt in thin mud. Sen Sen was too handled. Fine Shot lost ground at the end. Sir Kingston quit under pressure.

Chickamauga, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Sen Sen, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Lissome, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Sir Kingston, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3.
